Welcome to On Assignment Lab Support Ireland!

As a candidate for employment at On Assignment Lab Support Ireland, you have met the basic requirements of skills, experience, education and availability needed by our clients. Clients request our employees to work at their location for a specific period of time to complete various work duties. As an On Assignment Lab Support Ireland employee you will typically be assigned to technical positions involving research and development and/or production in the food, chemical, biotechnology or pharmaceutical industries. These positions may involve working with various potentially hazardous substances and physical agents, including, but not limited to, the following.

- Various organic volatile and non-volatile chemicals, corrosives, potential carcinogens, mutagens and teratogens.
- Biological agents, pathogens and radioactive materials
- Heat, cold, pressure (including compressed gases), and noise
- Working with glassware, pipetting, repetitive tasks

These assignments may also involve standing/walking for extended periods, bending and stooping, and lifting up to 20Kg.

A safe working environment is important not only to you, but also to On Assignment Lab Support Ireland and our Clients. You are expected to take all reasonable safety precautions, and to follow all On Assignment Lab Support Ireland and Client safety procedures, including Standard Operating Procedures, appropriate use of personal protective equipment and devices, and personal hygiene. Your responses below will not preclude you from any assignment, they are for our information in order that we can select the best possible assignment for you.

1. Do you have any restrictions preventing you from performing these tasks? yes no

If yes, please explain (this could be hayfever; back injury; asthma; eczema; colour-blindness; pregnancy; allergies to: latex, antibiotics, dust or nuts; RSI; dyslexia; etc.):

2. Are there any assignments that you cannot or prefer not to do due to religious, moral or ethical beliefs? yes no

If yes, please explain (this could be personal preferences such as not wanting to work with alcohol, meat products, tobacco, GM products, embryos, animal testing, working beyond dusk or Fridays etc.):

I confirm that the information given on this form is, to the best of my knowledge, true and complete. I accept that any false statement may be sufficient cause for rejection, or, if employed, dismissal.
